Looking forward to the new beginnings of September

Seorangi Messenger

Although autumn has started and it seems like the season is near, the weather stays hot and humid. We hope you take good care of your health and well-being despite the heat.

In September, as we look forward to the high skies and cool breezes, we hope your time with family becomes even more special.

May you find moments of rest and warm smiles through the various programs prepared by the Seocho-gu Family Center.

We hope your days are filled with health and happiness.

Here is our September schedule.
